Lesson Quiz 19-1

networks

Public Opinion and Interest Groups

DIRECTIONS	: True/False In the blank, indicate whether	the statement is true (T) or false (F).
1.	Public opinion has little to no influence on A	American democracy.
2.	Political socialization is the process through	which individuals learn their political beliefs.
3.	Mass media and the Internet have a very small impact on political culture.
4.	People may join interest groups to show the	eir political efficacy.
5.	Individuals may impact government policy b	by joining public interest groups.
the question.		ce that best completes the statement or answers
6.	6. What kind of poll uses leading questions in order to encourage a particular answer from respondents?
	A. exit poll	C. straw poll
	B. push poll	D. random poll
7.	7. Which event expressed by the media or on the Internet is most likely to influence the opinio of the public?
	A. a public opinion poll	C. footage of students learning in school
	B. footage of a rally or riot	D. the wording of the Bill of Rights
8.	8. Public officials are often responsive to public opinion becauseA. it is the law that they meet every public need.
	B. they are competing with officials from other political areas.
	C. they are not allowed to express their own views.
	D. they want to help the citizens who elec	ted them.
9	9. What makes people feel they may be able to have an impact on the government and government policy?
	A. government policies	C. political efficacy
	B. opinion polls	D. political socialization
10	 Which of the following groups is most likely comes to expressing opinions about worker 	y to shape a person's political socialization when it er pay?
	A. labor unions	C. school organizations
	B. environmental clubs	D. religious leaders