

Lee Armstrong Alternative Worksheet

Completion: Complete each statement.

Complete each of the following statements with the appropriate choice below. Some choices are not used.

advertising	bar association
contingency fee	legal aid organization
litigator	privilege
retainer	specialization

1. A _____ is an organization of attorneys that provides support for its members and the public.

Matching: Match each item with the correct statement below.

a. attorney-client privilege	e. lawyer
b. bar association	f. legal aid organization
c. code of professional responsibility	g. legal malpractice
d. contingency	h. retainer

- ____ 2. a down payment on the total fee a lawyer charges
- ____ 3. represents civil litigants who are too poor to hire a lawyer
- ____ 4. standards of conduct that guide lawyers' conduct
- ____ 5. ensures that information shared with your attorney is private
- ____ 6. type of payment plan in which lawyer's fees are deducted from the winnings in the case

Essay

7. Explain how an individual can become a lawyer.
8. During a confidential conversation between a lawyer and her client, the lawyer learned that the client was preparing to harm or kill another person. Discuss the reasons for and against requiring the lawyer to reveal the client's confidential information.
9. One response to the inability of people to afford lawyers in civil cases is the proposal to create non-lawyer legal technicians. After training and meeting certain requirements, these persons would be licensed to provide limited legal services in specific areas. What are the arguments for and against creating this position?
10. Your family's business has been sued by an individual who claims to have been injured in the family store. What would you advise your parents to do in seeking a lawyer?